"I believe I got as big a bag of bears in as short a time as any man ever did," said Doc Standiey, the ex-sheriff and bear hunter of Mendocino.

"A bag of bears," exclimed the young man who had just been telling about a bag of snipe he had once killed. "What were they—little fellows; what is it you call them—kittens; no, cubs; that's it."
"No, sir; they were not kittens or cubs." call them-kittens; no, cubs; that's it."
"No, sir; they were not kittens or cubs.
They were bears," deciared Doc. "I think I piled up about a ton of bear meat in about thirty seconds. I was out hunting in the southern part of Trinity county about seventeen or eighteen years ago.
We had killed about forty deer and three panthers and a bear or two in a couple of weeks and were pretty near ready to break camp when I thought I would go out and kill another deer to take home frash.
It was late in the afternoon, and I was it was late in the afternoon, and I was creeping along through the brush when suddenly I came out into a little opening. I stopped to see if there was any sign of deer, and while I stood looking about a big black bear climbed up on the trunk of a big for tree, that had been uprovided. He big fir tree that had been uprooted. He wasn't thirty yards away, and I plugged him in the ear. He rolled off the log and down the hill toward me, but before the every reta progres
